13. Any umbrella, tent, awning or other structure erected by the stallholder, must be secured. Stallholders are responsible to ensure that any structure does not compromise the safety of the public.

Power & Equipment Requirements

Access to power is via the type of site purchased. Powered sites incur an additional fee per site. It is the stallholder's responsibility to ensure that all electrical appliances and leads are tagged by a qualified electrician and must be available for inspection at all times. Appliances that have not been tagged by a qualified electrician must not be used. Any leads placed across public thoroughfare ie footpaths must be covered with approved rubber matting and taped down with gaffer tape.

Power is not provided for EFTPOS machines.

The Easter in the Country Committee is recommending that those requiring powered sites provide their own generator to power the site. If this does occur the site applied for should be an unpowered site. The generator noise must be kept to a minimum.

Insurance:

All Stallholders must have Public Liability Insurance and a copy of the current insurance must be presented either at the meeting on the Friday afternoon for viewing or on the stall on the Saturday morning.

Parking, Vehicles and Access:

No vehicles will be allowed to remain at the market stall sites unless they are being used to sell goods out of.

- Vehicles may enter the market site area to set up the stalls between the hours of 4.30am- 6.30am on the Saturday morning and leave the area by 7.00am.

- The Easter in the Country Festival Country Markets are all-weather markets.
- It is the stallholder’s responsibility to provide his or her own protection from all weather conditions.

Emergency Services

- In the event of an emergency, please follow the instructions from the Qld Police and State Emergency Service. Report all emergency incidents, no matter how small, to the Easter in the Country Markets Information Booth/official on site.

Map

- A site map designating your site allocation will be available a fortnight prior to the event and will be forwarded to you via Email. If you do not have email then it will be available at the meeting.
- While every attempt will be made to maintain the same sites as allocated in 2018 there is no guarantee that this can occur as some changes to the format are likely in 2019 due to change in vendors.
- If you are receiving your emails on an electronic device, it may be difficult to view site plan. Please do not hesitate to contact the coordinator regarding sites.

Easter in the Country Inc reserves the right to vary these terms and conditions at any time without notice.
